

Sports Business Journal
Monday, May 9, 2016

TWO BUSY ARENAS HAVE SUITE RENOVATIONS AS SUMMER TO-DOS

Staples Center and Wells Fargo Center, two of the busiest arenas in North America, are undergoing major suite renovations this summer.

In Philadelphia, Comcast Spectacor's project piggybacks on the Democratic National Convention, set for July 25-28 at Wells Fargo Center.

Starting late this month, the arena will shut down for two months for a retrofit tied to the convention that includes the conversion of 40 sideline suites to broadcast platforms for television networks.

After the convention, those suites will already be in construction mode, providing a head start on a refresh of all 126 suites in the facility at a cost of $15 million to $20 million, said John Page, president of the Wells Fargo Center complex.

A preview of how suites will look after renovations is set up in Wells Fargo Center.