DAWSON CREEK - Spectra by Comcast Spectacor, the provider of Venue Management, Food Services & Hospitality and Ticketing & Fan Engagement to the Encana Events Centre in Dawson Creek, British Columbia is proud to announce that in partnership with the CBC and The Tragically Hip, the Encana Events Centre will be hosting a free family friendly screening party of the August 20 Kingston concert.

This event is free and open to the public but a ticket is required for entry. Tickets will be available starting at 10:00AM on Wednesday, July 27 at the Tiger Box Office Plus at the Encana Events Centre or at Tiger Printing & Stationers, online at www.tigerboxofficeplus.ca or by phone at 1-877-339-8499. Tickets will only be available to be picked up directly at the box office, left at WILL CALL for pickup or a Print at Home ticket that is emailed will be available.

Tickets will be available for the floor as general admission. To create a festival feel to the event, the Centre asks patrons to BYOC – Bring Your Own Chair as the floor will be open to all types of seating or standing. The Centre will provide seats to any patrons requesting one. Reserved seating tickets will be available in the stands.

The Encana Events Centre hosted The Tragically Hip here in Dawson Creek on July 12, 2011 with guests The Trews and with the Viewing Party on August 20, the Centre will feature photos and other memorabilia from the 2011 show for public viewing. The event will also feature other fun fan features like selfie stations, a silent auction including merchandise from the Man Machine Poem tour and other items. All proceeds from this event will support the Gord Downie Fund for Brain Cancer at the Sunnybrook Foundation.

The Tragically Hip: A National Celebration will be a family friend event with no liquor being served. Spectra Food Services & Hospitality will have many concessions open with items from our extensive menu including snacks, pop and other beverages.
